

January 2015

Cirtec Medical Systems Organization Overview Script

Cirtec Medical Systems in East Longmeadow MA is a leading contract manufacturer in the medical device industry. Cirtec's 130 scientists, engineers and manufacturing teams have completed over 300 medical device projects, specializing in active and passive implants, minimally invasive systems, and electronic systems and instrumentation. The depth and breadth of this medical device technology experience make Cirtec a complete medical device consulting firm for both large manufacturers and smaller start ups.

Cirtec has full engineering and manufacturing functions to serve the nation's top medical device manufacturers from coast to coast providing complete and accountable services from concept to commercialization, delivering innovative medical device solutions. Cirtec meets customers' needs by providing exceptional service in the development and manufacturing of the highest quality medical devices. Each employee is dedicated to continuously improve Cirtec's quality management system and to comply with regulatory requirements.